

CHAPTER 128.

[Published March 14, 1864.]

AN ACT to authorize the collection of a special tax in the town of Amherst, county of Portage.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The tax voted at a special town meeting held in the town of Amherst, in the county of Portage, on the 27th day of February, 1864, for the purpose of paying bounties to volunteers, may be collected, and the delinquent portion thereof returned, in the manner provided by sections three, four, five, six, seven and eight of chapter thirty-nine of the general laws of 1864, and with the same force and effect as if said meeting had been called and held as provided by said chapter thirty-nine, prior to the 25th day of February, 1864: provided, that the town treasurer may retain the assessment roll until the first day of May next, before making return of the delinquent tax, which return shall be made to the town clerk of said town of Amherst. Bounty tax may be collected.

SECTION 2. The said town clerk shall include such delinquent tax in the next general assessment roll, against the proper descriptions of land and names, and such tax shall be collected and returned and in all respects treated as other taxes are in such general assessment roll. When return to be made.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
